The World was the first newspaner to announce the result of the election yesterday. The World is first in circulation in New York City. Equals any two other New York news-

"Circulation Books Open to All."

JEROME PLANS RAINES LAW REFORM

"Circulation Books Open to All."

RACING # SPORTS

THE WORLD'S BEST OCTOBERS

Total Number of Advertisements Printed, 90,442; Gain Over Losi Year, 8,485

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 6, 1901. PRICE ONE CENT.

AND ABOLITION OF POLICE BLACKMAIL STOKES'S WILL FILED; NO

MENTION OF ROSE BARCLAY.

Have No Wife and No Children," He Cousin and One Time dren, therefore I Bitter Enemy, W. E. D. Stokes.

Says-Leaves Whole George W. Corntsh and Charles Plat Estate in Trust to His ner signed the will as witnesses.

MRS. GEORGE KEPPEL HURRIES OVER SEAS.

She and the Earl of Albemarle Hasten Back to New York to Mr. Keppel, Who Is III with Typhoid Fever.

Mrs. Moore Permits Her

Husband's Sweetheart to Live in the House.

he met Katle Powers. She was a ser-the witness stand.

worked.

him. I suppose.

Representing Croker.

to-day during an inquest over the body at Fortieth street and Broadway this a hearing before Referee John A. Stra-Acorns to burn Richard Croker in effigy portion of the Miller Syndicate loot afternoon there was a small sized riot ley in the Home Life Building. attendance at the home of Mrs. George Moore, in Bayport. The chief actor in Moore, in Bayport. The chief actor in the streets centring at the scene of the the rack to tell how he got and what the strange domestic drama was Mrs. disturbance. The vigilance of the police was all that prevented a fight that plunder. The occasion was a hearing in he witness stand.

Her story disclosed the fact that the might have resulted disastrously.

The Acorns had been parading through dead child was not Mrs. Moore's, but the east side for two hours, when they was born to a young woman whom Mrs. went to Broadway and marched up that Moore's husband had brought into his thoroughfare, nearly 2,000 strong. It had home, after begging his wife not to been planned to disband the parade at first loaned Seymour Johnson & Co. disclose his secret, and to help him and Forty-second street, and in anticipation the young woman out of their diffi- of this some of the paraders had procured a suit of clothes, stuffed it with "George, my husband, was always straw and labelled it "Richard Croker." kind and good to me," she said, "until In front of the Metropolitan Opera House a large youth set fire to the figvant in the home of a summer resiure, hoisted it on the end of a pole and dent of Sayville, where my husband also held it aloft, while his companions danced war dances around him. "Last year George told me of his

Of course, an enormous crowd gathtrouble and begged me to help him and ered. In the crowd were many Tammany followers, and these made a rush her. I was overcome with grief and shame, but could not bring myself to to attack the Acorns. Policemen expose them. It was because I loved attracted by the tumult came from every direction, and within five min-"Anyway, I consented that she should utes everybody was trying to hit every-

"Anyway. I consented that she should come into our home for a time and she did. When the child was born I cared for it and fed it as my own. Its mother was with me for months, in fact until I could stand it no longer to hear George praising her.

"About a month ago I insisted that she leave us and she did so, but left her baby in my care. Then George seemed to get more and more discontented and last Saturday, after getting two weeks' wages, he dressed in his best clothes, saying he would spend the evening out, tinguish the flames that were slowly devouring the stuffed figure in the

DELAY FOR CAPT. DIAMOND. Case Postponed at District-Attor ney Philbin's Request.

Special to The Evening World.)
ALBANY, Nov. 6.--After a roll of ixty jurors had been drawn, from which the petit jury to try Captain Thomas J. District-Attorney Philbin asked for an adjournment of the case on the ground that he was not prepared to go on with it, and the presiding Magistrate, Justice Herrick, put the case over until Nov. 25. Mr. Philbin did not explain the reason for his unpreparedness, and his request was a great surprise, as he had given no futimation that he intended to make such a move.

Capt. Diamond is under indictment for neglect of duty in failing to suppress a disorderly house. His cases.

Capt. Diamond is under indictment for neglect of duty in failing to suppress a disorderly house. His case was taken on a change of venue from New York Lazative Brome-Quinias Tableta curs a cold is to Albany Country. His attorneys were in court and ready to go on.

"Goslin admitted to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found more me, his old friend, out of hard money."

The hearing was then adjourned until to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000, and begged me not to hurt him. I found out he had lied to me he stole $11,000 of my $140,000 of my $140,00

Tammany Adherents Attend Lawyer Corresponded with Acorns, Who Burn Figure | Syndicate Miller When He Was Hiding in Montreal.

Col. Robert A. Ammon was put on proceedings brought by Assignee Haves of Seymour, Johnson & Co., into which Ammon put a good part of the syndicate profits. The firm falled last May. In reply to questions Ammon said he $10,000 on Alfred R. Goslin's advice. "This was Miller money," he said,

"and Goslin knew all about it." "Did you have any authority from Miller to invest or loan this m "Well, Miller had the Wells Fargo Company account of $100,000 put in my name and that was enough authority

Corresponded with Miller. The most interesting fact brought out was that Ammon corresponded often with Miller through a messenger while the syndicate man was hiding in Mon-

After much sparring Ammon said this

After much sparring Ammon said this messenger was an employee of Greenshields & Greenshields, Miller's Monitreal awyers. He gave his name as Shepard.

Trips were anade weekly by Shepard with advice and information from Ammon to Miller and money and questions from Miller to Ammon. This was kept up for nearly four months, until Miller was caught.

"We never trusted our correspondence to the mails," said Ammon.
"Did you ever send Miller any moneys from the Wells-Fargo account?"
"Yes, often. The amounts varied, but it went up in the thousands,"
Regarding the $40,439 investment of Miller money in Seymour, Johnson & Co. Ammon said:
"Goslin told me he got 59 per cent. on all money he could get put in the firm and that he'd give me two-fifths of it on what I loaned the firm out of the Miller money. He said he thought the firm was solid and so did I.
"I didn't understand just what Goslin's 59 per cent. was, or what my 20 per cent, would be, but Goslin said it was all right."

Lawyer Murray tried to show that Ammon endeavored to hide his connect was all right."

Lawyer Murray tried to show that Ammon endeayored to hide his connection with Seymour, Johnson & Co. by using Gowlin to shield him. This Am-asses Bray.

SUGGESTION "Don't pour water on a dead rat." A HINT.
"Don't cheer, boys; they're dying."
Admiral Philip at Santiago.

SULTAN'S MINISTERS MEET. no way to blame.

PARIS, Nov. 6 .- The Foreign Office is till without any further advices from

TO BE ORDERED TO-NIGHT.

SCRANTON, Pa., Nov. 6.—President Nicolls, of District No 1, United Mine Workers of America, will this evening issue an Seth Low Announces that No One Need Apply to Him for Jobs-Will. order putting on strike the 5,000 employees of the Temple Iron

BIG COAL MINERS' STRIKE

Company in their eight mines in the Lackawanna and Wyoming Valleys. The Temple Company refused to reinstate fifty workmen who had been discharged.

It is allaged the fifty men were discharged as a result of a blacklist, because they had engaged in a former strike.

SEVENTH NATIONAL PAPERS FILED.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Edwin Gould, President, and Will iam Nelson Cromwell, counsel, of New York, with Forrest Ray ner, receiver of the Seventh National Bank of New York, mel Comptroller Ridgely here to-day and submitted the final paper: for the resumption of the Seventh National Bank. The Comp troller has approved their plan of resuming business.

MISS STONE WRITES CONSUL DICKINSON.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 .- The State Department received to-day a cablegram from Consul-General Dickinson, at Constantinople, saying that he had received a letter from Mis-Stone, the kidnapped missionary, dated Oct. 29.

It was not learned whether Mr. Dickinson's cablegram in cluded any information as to the contents of the letter.

LATE RESULTS AT LAKESIDE.

Sixth Race—Armer Bennett 1, Woodstock 2, Red Apple 3. Mr. Rayner presented an able defen

AT LATONIA.

Fifth Race—Sister Addie 1, Faunarina 2, Lulu Flight 3.

JUDGE JEROME GRATEFUL TO THE EVENING WORLD.

William Travers Jerome, when he read the Evening and Sunday editions of The World containing the great double-page presentation of "Unanswered Charges Made Against Van Wyck, Croker, Devery and Unger," said:

"SUCH PRESENTATION OF FACTS BY A GREAT NEWS-PAPER ARE MORE EFFECTIVE THAN ALL THE SPEECHES OF A CAMPAIGN."

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT CONGRATULATES CITY.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 5-To Seth Low: I congratulate the city even more than I do you upon the overwhelming triumph of the forces of decency. THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

A badly battered and grieved Tammany man got down to his office early this morning, and in anticipation of the libes of his fusion friends pasted up on the walls the following notices:

REMEMBER. "Some men, like Jackson, are great i FUSIONISTS, NOTE!
"The shallows murmur and the deeps are dumb."—Goethe.

"To err is human; to forgive divine."

-Pope's Essay on Man.
No one bothered the young man after still without any further advices from Admiral Calllard. His despatch of yearing are the walls the following notices:

WARNING.

"Beware lest you perish before the reath you provoke."

—Tim. N. 18.

TIMELLY.

"Gentlemen. spare a broken reed."

—Lord Bacon to His Judges.

FROM AESOP.

"When the Lion is Dead, the Jack—"When the Lion is Dead, the Jack—tion, M. Bapst.

District Attorney-Elect Says Liquor Laws Will Be Speedily Altered to Meet Sensible Requirements.

Appoint Commissioners and Make Them Responsible.

nounced that the Raines Law would be speedily altered to meet the sensible requirements of the He reiterated his intention of routing out p olice blackmail but refused to name John Doe,

District-Attorney-elect Jerome, in an interview with an Evening World reporter to-day, an-

"He might be one of the criminal rich who might leave the country." Mayor-elect Low, before leaving for Great Barrington, Mass., this afternoon, said that he would appoint commissioners and deputies and hold them responsible for their appointees, and that no one need apply to him for jobs. Richard Croker emphaticaly denitd the story that he had abdicated in favor of John B. Carroll, while Mr. Carroll was discretely silent.

"I am the same Croker I have always been," said the defeated Tammany leader. "When Pane away Mr. Carroll is in charge. When I am here I am in charge."

SCHLEY MOVED TO TEARS BY RAYNER'S

discussion of the second specification of the precept relating to the circumstances attending the movements of the Flying Squadron off Clenfuegos, and then proceeded to consider very briefly the cruise from Clenfuegos to Santiago, which is covered by the third specifica-He passed from these to the Admiral's Heroism and Generosity Told in Plea by Counsel to Court of Inquiry.

with a blessessing despatch No. 7. known as the "Dear Schley" letter, Mr. Rayner the "Dear Schley" letter, Mr. Rayner the "Dear Schley" letter, Mr. Rayner to develop the Spanish land batteries, and that message made it incumbent upon Commodors Schley to remain at Clentugos. He declared that this was the key to the whole case, and that it did not admit of any other construction than that Commodore Schley should remain at Clenfugos.

In this connection Mr. Rayner districted that the order conveyed in deen Commodore Schley's chief initantion to develop the Spanish land batteries. E. S. Theall, acting for Stayton & Campbell, counsel for Admiral Sampson, sent a letter to the Court of Incursion that the content of the court record. The protest dealt entirely with the summing up.

STRUCK BY TWO CARS, BUT LIVES.

KNOCKED FROM ONE TRACK TO ANOTHER.

Foundulserns Picked Up Unconscious but Found Not to He Seriously Hart.

Fetevus Founoulseras, twenty-two-years old, of No. 547 West Fiffy-ninth at Sixty-ninth street this afternoon when he was struck by a south-bound where he was in turn struck by a Turkish north-bound car. His left arm was fractured and he was bruised about the head and body, but strange to say, when he was taken to the Rosevelt Hospital and restored o consciousness it was found that he was not seriously injured, and the doctors said he would recover. Patrolman Toomey, of the West

Sixty-eighth street station, saw the accident, but made no arrests. He said that the Greek walked right into the first car and that the motorman was in ENGLAND LOOKS EAST.

LONDON, Nov. 6.-The prolonged sittings of the British Cabinet yesterday and to-day have caused much con jecture. Mr. Chamberlain's organ, the Birmingham Post, avers that one of the principal subjects discussed was the threatening relations between France and Turkey, which may be a prelude to grave international complications.

Customs Drafts Given to Cover Lorando and Tubeni Claims.

CONSTANTINOPLE. Nov. 5 .- The street, was crossing Central Park west | Porte has sent a note to M. Bapst, councillor of the French Legation, enclosing monthly drafts on the customs, in paytrolley car of the Eighth avenue line ment of the Lorando and Tubent claims, and knocked across to the other tracks. and embodying certain decisions of the Government regarding the mays difficulty M. Banst has forwarded the communication to Paris. HERE IS A NEW JOHN DOE.

Has Red Hair and is Accused of Illegal Voting. was arraigned in the West Side

Court to-day charged with illegal voting, under the name of "John Doe with Red Hair." He was charged with having voted in the name of William Trimble, of No. 508 West Fifty-third Trimble, of No. 58 West Fifty-time street. He was arrested yesterday at the boiling place of the Ninth Election District of the Seventeenth Assembly District, being in the act of voting just as the man who is said to be the right William Trimble came in.

He refused to tell his right name, address, occupation, etc., and was held for further examination on Friday in 2000.

$50,000 CARRIED BY WOMAN SUSPECT

ARRESTED CHARGED WITH COMPLICITY IN ROBBERY.

Man. Her Companion, Suppose to Be Principal in Express Hold-Up.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 6 .- A woman giving er name as Mrs. Rose and claiming Vicksburg, Miss., as her home, was arrested here to-day by detectives on the belief that she was connected with the Great Northern Express robbaty July 3 last near Wagner, Mont.

The woman had in her possession valise and about 250,350 in bank notes of the National Bank of Helena, The police believe the money is part of the proceeds of the express robbery. When taken to Chief of Detectives Desmond's office, it is stated, she con fessed she had forged the signatures of officers of the Helena National Bank to the notes. Last night the police arrested a man giving the name of John Arnold on the charge of being implicated in the express hold-up. Arnold arrived here last Friday, in company with Mis.

Rose, it is stated he went under the alias of "Harvey Logan" and J. W.
Rose. The couple registered at a hotel.
After Arnold's arrest last night detectives were posted near the hotel, and Mrs. Rose was taken into custody as she was leaving there this forenoon.

ODELL WRITING HIS MESSAGE

ALBANY, Nov. 6 .- Gov. Odell arrived Sunday World Wants make the pathway to success an easy climb.

Besults await takers at the top.

Alibant, Nov. 5.—607, Onch arrives in this city at noon to-day from Newburg. He will be here until the latter part of the week and continue were on his annual legislative message.

night; fresh northerly winds.

Forecast for the thirty-six hours ending 8 P. M. Thursday for New York City and vicinity: Partly cloudy to-becoming variable.

wages, he dressed in his best clothes, saying he would spend the evening out, and went away.

"I have not seen him since, but believe he is in Brooklyn, where Katte Powers now lives. In spite of it all, I love him yet."

The evidence showed that the child died from natura; causes, but all interest in the verdict was overshadowed by the wife's remarkable recital. WEATHER FORECAST.